Accreditation for Pharmacists

---

The American Society of Health-System Pharmacists is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education.

Target Audience

---

This activity was planned to meet the needs of Clinical Pharmacists early in career and/or looking to transition into more defined leadership roles within their organization or within professional societies. This will include concepts on how to prepare and transition into more formal leadership roles as well as other essential tools such as time management, which are important for success.

Activity Overview

---

This webinar will explore the various leadership styles used in leading and managing along with examples of how individuals can grow their skills in using each style. The presentation will outline how self-awareness and identification of strengths can help propel “little l’s” into roles that may present future opportunities to attain a “Big L”.

Learning Objectives

---

1. Describe the variety of leadership styles, and the advantages and disadvantages of each style
2. List the advantages and disadvantages of each leadership style.
3. Discuss strategies to prepare for a leadership role.
4. Describe approaches to a sustained and deliberate effort to growing leadership capacity.

Faculty Disclosures

In accordance with the ACPE's and ACCME's Standards for Commercial Support, anyone in a position to control the content of an educational activity is required to disclose to the accredited provider their relevant financial relationships. In accordance with these Standards, all potential conflicts of interest have been resolved. An individual has a relevant financial relationship if he or she (or spouse/domestic partner) has a financial relationship in any amount occurring in the last 12 months with a commercial interest whose products or services are discussed in the activity content over which the individual has control.

As defined by ACCME, a commercial interest is any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. The Standards for Commercial Support do not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests. The existence or non-existence of relevant financial relationships will be disclosed to the activity audience. All identified conflicts of interest must be resolved prior to the activity.

- All planners, presenters, reviewers, and ASHP staff report no financial relationships relevant to this activity.

Methods and CE Requirements

This Live Webinar activity consists of faculty slides presentations, active learning activities, discussion, and handouts. Participants must attend the activity in its entirety to get the Attendance code to claim continuing pharmacy education credit online at ASHP eLearning Portal. Follow the prompts online to complete the evaluation, claim credit and view the statement of credit immediately after the activity but no later than December 6, 2021.

Per ACPE requirements, CPE credit must be claimed within 60 days of being earned. To be sure your CE is accepted inside of ACPE's 60 day window; plan to process your CE before December 6, 2021! Claim your CE at <http://elearning.ashp.org>. Once you have processed and claimed your CE credit, we encourage you to check your NABP eProfile account to verify your credits were transferred successfully before the ACPE 60-day deadline. It is an electronic direct-report process so your credits should appear in your account within a few minutes. After the 60 day deadline, ASHP will no longer be able to report your credit(s) for this activity.

System Technical Requirements
