STUDENT KEYNOTE SPEAKER

AMBERLEY SNYDER

Amberley Snyder is an inspiring motivational speaker and champion barrel racer known for her incredible resilience and determination. Born in California in January 29, 1981, Amberley developed a passion for riding horses at a young age, winning the All-Around Cowgirl World Championship in 2009. In January 2010, a car accident left her paralyzed from the waist down, but her determination saw her back to barrel racing just 18 months later. Today, Amberley continues to compete, advocate for individuals with disabilities, and inspire many with her story, which was featured in the Netflix biopic, "Walk. Ride. Rodeo."
